

Feature settings

Domo Everywhere

Certified Content

Slideshows

Buzz

Certified Cards

Certified DataSets

Set up a Certification Process

Before content can be certified, at least one certification process must be enabled. To let your company certify content, edit an existing process or create a new one, then enable the process. Once certified, content will receive the certified icon associated with its corresponding process.

Company certified

Company

Choose this process to achieve your company's top tier of certification. Company Certifie...

Departments

Human Resources

This process certifies content trusted by the Human Resources department. If your...

Marketing

This process certifies content trusted by the Marketing department. If your content...

Sales

This process certifies content trusted by the Sales department. If your content...